To all the World who use Leather in any Form.

OIL OF TANNIN,
Or, Leather Restorer.

A new Chemical Discovery.

Most people know, that skins and hides are converted into leather by the use of Tannin extracted from certain barks, &c.

When the force and strength of the Tannin is worn out, leather becomes dead, hard, dry, brittle, cracked, covered with a crust, &c. THIS ALL KNOW. To restore then life, softness, moisture, strength, smoothness, and remove all crust, fly, or blister—restore the tannin. This substance the leather never can receive the second time; but the whole virtues of it are in this article, the OIL OF TANNIN—which penetrates the stiffest and hardest leather, if it has been twenty years in use; and if it tears easily with the fingers, it imparts once a strength that is utterly incredible until seen. It becomes like new leather, in all respects, with a delightful softness and polish, and makes all leather completely and perfectly impervious to water—particularly boots, shoes, carriage-tops, harness, hose, trunks, and in fact all things made of leather, giving a splendid polish, even higher than new leather has, and at least doubling its wear and durability, in whatever manner the leather is used.—THESE ARE FACTS.

For sale at the Drug and Book store of Dr. Wm. R. Snelson, Fayette, also at the Drug store of Dr. A. R. Ober, Glasgow.
Fayette, June 8th, 1844. 12-1y

The Sick-Headache,

Either Nervous or Bilious.

An attentive perusal of the following will, it is believed, fully repay all classes of readers:—Headache! This disease is one from which arises more misery to the human family than is generally supposed; not being directly fatal it is often neglected, or persons resort so much to the use of purgatives and other medicines, as to impair their general health, and often induce fatal disease. This article, Dr. SNELSON'S HEADACHE REMEDY, from Comstock & Co., now offered, seems to have overcome these difficulties. While its effects are most powerful and immediate in curing an attack or keeping it off, it is so perfectly mild and innocent as to be used for infants with the greatest effect and safety. This has now been tested by so many of the highest members of this community, as to require no further proof.

If taken a few times in as many hours, when there are indications of an approaching attack, it is sure in all cases to prevent the attack. If used for a few weeks, the premonitory symptoms gradually subside, until they wholly disappear, and never, without some great external or predisposing cause, return. If the person neglects to use it till the headache commences, it sometimes cures instantly, but at others the turns will have their course for two or three times, and then wholly disappear.

For sale at the Drug and Book store of Dr. Wm. R. Snelson, Fayette, also, at the Drug store of Dr. A. R. Ober, Glasgow.

WHIG SONG.

TUNE—Yankee Doodle.

Come Whigs and help us sing this song,
It takes just now surprising,
And if you cannot sing, then shout
For Clay and Frelinghuysen.

Chorus—Yankee Doodle, mind the tune,
The working-men are rising,
And if you cannot sing, then shout
For Clay and Frelinghuysen.

These are the men and this the tune
That locos hate like roses,
For every whig can sing and shout
For Clay and Frelinghuysen.

The Roster now is on his back,
What agony he dies in;
Thus speaks the coon—"Why don't you crow,
For Clay and Frelinghuysen?"

The Traitor's race is almost run,
No Texas trick can aid him,
The People's scorn will blight the wretch,
Who basely has betrayed them.

Hurrah, my boys! we'll sing and shout,
Now, is it not surprising,
The way this good old tune does go
To Clay and Frelinghuysen?

The locos only have four months
To vend their thrice told lies in,
And then with one accord we'll vote,
For Clay and Frelinghuysen.

The People now are wide awake,
The Loco tricks despising,
And like a hurricane they'll go
For Clay and Frelinghuysen.

The Democrats are in a snarl,
The Whigs are all united,
With hand and heart they'll work and sing,
Until our vessel's righted.

Then every fellow lend a hand,
Whig stock is still a rising,
We'll write, and speak, and sing, and vote
For Clay and Frelinghuysen.

Hurrah for Clay, the very name
Is Locofoco pizen,
And, next to him, as good a Whig,
Hurrah for Frelinghuysen.

Yankee Doodle, mind the tune,
The People all are rising,
And shout and sing, Hurrah, Hurrah
For Clay and Frelinghuysen.

WHO CAN VOTE FOR HENRY CLAY?

THE OLD DEMOCRATS of 1812, can vote for him, for he was the great Champion of the Democratic party, on the floor of Congress, and silenced the batteries of the Essex Junto, by his all-powerful eloquence, and rebuked such men as MARTIN VAN BUREN, who sought by an alliance with the Hartford Convention Federalists to defeat the election of that pure patriot JAMES MADISON.

THE FRIENDS OF LIBERTY, everywhere can vote for him, for it was his voice that was heard in the Halls of Congress, in favor of South America and Grecian Independence.

The honest, patient GERMANS, can vote for him, for he is an advocate of their best interests, and the eulogist of their frugal habits, their peaceful quietude, and their love of liberty, law and order.

THE FRIENDS OF IRELAND can vote for him, for he has ever been the advocate of Irishmen, likening them in his fervid eloquence to his own warm-hearted Kentuckians.

THE FRIENDS OF A SOUND CURRENCY will vote for him, for he it was that perfected the soundest currency on earth, and withstood the clamor of demagogues to preserve it.

THE FRIENDS OF HOME INDUSTRY will vote for him, for it is his glory to give industry its ample reward, by removing from it foreign pauper competition.

THE MECHANIC will vote for him, for it is the policy of HENRY CLAY to give full employment to every hand, and every lever, and every screw, and every wheel in the land by creating full employment, and good pay in good money.

THE FARMER will support him, for it is his policy that will create a Home Market, and thereby increase the profits of his labor and the value of his lands.

LABORERS of all kinds will support him, for he it is that will protect them from the pauper labor of Europe, and enable them to support themselves and families with ease and independence.

Finally, the PEOPLE of every condition of life will support him, as their BEST, TRUEST, AND FINEST FRIEND, and THEY WILL ELECT HIM TOO, by a majority exceeding that which passed sentence of condemnation upon Martin Van Buren in 1840. The banner of the people is already unfurled to the breeze, and upon it is inscribed in letters of light, "THE VICTORY FOR CLAY in 1844, shall and will be greater than that for Harrison in 1840."

HURRAH FOR HENRY CLAY!!

The needs of repentance are sown in youth by pleasure, but the harvest is reaped in age by pain.

From the Western Pioneer.

LETTER FROM PETER H. BURNETT.

We have been politely favoured with a letter from our old friend Burnett to a relative here, [Liberty, Mo.] from which we make the following extracts:

PORT VANDERBILT, Nov. 10th, 1843.

I arrived here yesterday, having left my family at the Falls 100 miles above this on the Columbia in a comfortable house. I shall start for them in the morning, having determined to settle myself in the Wallamette valley in the "Quality Plains" as they are here called. My position will be in a few miles of the Wallamette river, and not far from a town site selected by Gen. McCurver and myself, where, I believe, the great Commercial Emporium of this country will be located. We have been offered $100 each for several lots, but have not yet had time to lay them off. The place is at the head of ship navigation on the Wallamette, and is the nearest point to the fine farming country in the Wallamette Valley.

The practice of the law will be worth something here, and is so at present. The avenues of business are so numerous, that the only difficulty is to make a choice.

The emigrants borrow wheat now and return the same quantity when their crops are gathered next year. They buy goods upon time. Labor meets with ready employment at $1 per day for common laborers, and $3 per day for mechanics. Cows $50 to $75 each. Oxen from $60 to $100 per yoke. Wagons high—$200 each.

Our cattle and wagons will all be here as I have left at Walla-walla to be wintered as I could get Spanish cattle for them here, kind for kind. Provisions plenty, and you are surrounded by the most hospitable people in the world. Wheat $1; flour $1; salted salmon 4 cts per lb; beef 5 to 6 cts; pork 5 to 10; butter from 25 to 37 1/2. This country will ultimately be full of stock, but not for several years. If men would turn their property in Missouri into young heifers, and bring them here, they could not only defray expenses, but make money by the trip, and that no little amount. Tell — to sell every thing he has on earth, and lay all out in heifers of the age of 2 years, and bring them here. Let him come in a wagon to the Falls, and I will there meet him with boats, and bring him here in four days. A man here with 50 good heifers is rich. Let him also bring some American mares—they will amply repay him for the trip. The trip is long and laborious—but that is all. Your son is here with me, and will go to the Wallamette falls to-morrow. That he will do well there is no doubt.

Sugar, coffee, tea, &c. as well as goods generally, are here plenty. Dr. McLaughlin is the most hospitable man in the world. I am entertained here free of all expense. Before I reached here, Dr. McLaughlin sent me a keg of butter to the cascades.

My health is very fine and the country exceeds my expectations. The extent of it is not so great as the United States, but there is enough here for all settlers in the next 20 years. I see mill and town sites now vacant, that will be a fortune to the man who obtains them. There is one mill site 20 miles up the Columbia as good as the world could ask; with the finest fir and pine timber around it you could imagine, standing thicker than the cotton wood in the Missouri bottoms, and from 150 to 300 feet high. The Columbia, from the cascades to the Ocean is as smooth as a lake, and good ship navigation. The man who comes here now can make a fortune, if he will. At this place everything is most comfortable, and the houses are fine and neatly finished. Ships are here in port. If there be a place in the world where a man can easily supply all his wants, it is
